Report Visa Fraud

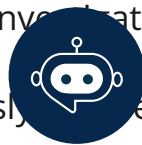

Under the leadership of President Trump and Secretary Rubio, the State Department takes all allegations of visa fraud or misuse very seriously, thoroughly reviewing all reports of visa fraud or misuse and taking prompt and appropriate action to fully enforce U.S. laws.

We encourage members of the public to provide any and all information regarding potential fraud or misuse of U.S. visas for immediate investigation.

Please provide the most complete information you have about the potential visa fraud or misuse. The more identifying information you include in the report, the more likely it is to result in a successful investigation.

This form may be submitted anonymously. However, providing your name and email address allows us to follow up with you if we have questions about the information you provided.

If you have any additional information not addressed below, please include it in your response to Question #5.

Reporting Other Incidents

If you need to report other criminal or illegal acts not related to America's legal immigration system, or if you are reporting something that you believe may be an imminent national security or public safety threat, contact the appropriate government agency or local law enforcement authority directly or see the U.S. Department of Homeland Security's Report Incidents page for more information. You may report human trafficking tips to the National Human Trafficking Hotline at 1-888-373-7888.

PAPERWORK REDUCTION ACT STATEMENT

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 15 minutes per response, including time required to search existing data searches, gather necessary documentation, provide the information and/or documents required, and review the final collection responses. You do not have to supply the information requested unless this collection displays a currently valid OMB control number. If you have comments on the accuracy of this burden estimate and/or recommendations for reducing it, please send them to:
